

Policies and guidelines regarding business partners

The Company places great importance on selecting suitable trade partners. Which must be ensured the selection process and the treatment of partners are equal and fair. The company recognizes the importance of having a partner with good reputation and ethics. To comply with business standards without calling or not accepting or pay any benefits which is dishonest in dealing with trading partners including promotion and support encourage business partners to fight corruption. The company has the criteria for selection of trading partners as follows:

- (1) Produce or distribute quality products that meet the needs and requirements that can check quality.
- (2) Who has the potential to grow with the company in the long term
- (3) Who can comply with conditions and the Company's policy to comply with intellectual property laws by not producing or selling Sale of products that infringe copyright and trademarks
- (4) Who can comply with good corporate governance principles to be in line with business operation our Company.